109TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 159

Recognizing the sacrifices being made by the families of members of the Armed Forces and supporting the designation of a week as National Military Families Week.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

May 19, 2005

Mr. Boozman (for himself and Ms. Herseth) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the sacrifices being made by the families of members of the Armed Forces and supporting the designation of a week as National Military Families Week.

Whereas the people of the United States have a sincere appreciation for the sacrifices being made by the families of members of the Armed Forces while their loved ones are deployed in the service of their country;

Whereas military families face unique challenges while their loved ones are deployed because of the lengthy and dangerous nature of these deployments;

Whereas the strain on military family life is further increased when these deployments become more frequent;

- Whereas military families on the home front remain resilient because of their comprehensive and responsive support system;
- Whereas the brave members of the Armed Forces who have defended the United States since September 11, 2001, continue to have incredible, unending support from their families; and
- Whereas the week of June 5, 2005, has been proposed to be designated as National Military Families Week: Now, therefore be it
- 1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate 2 concurring), That the Congress—
- 3 (1) recognizes the sacrifices of military families
- 4 and the support they provide for their loved ones
- 5 serving as members of the Armed Forces; and
- 6 (2) supports the designation of a week as Na-
- 7 tional Military Families Week.
